

Upcoming Events!

Friday 9/15

Intent-to-Run meeting for 6th and 7th graders!

If you're interested in joining Student Council and making a difference in your school, you should definitely attend.

Monday 9/27

Mandatory lunch meeting for the 6th and 7th graders running for Student Council.

Be a part of the Student Council and make a difference! Get involved and make your school year the best one yet.

Thursday 10/1

Sign up for the volleyball game!

After all, who doesn't want to the epic show-down between students & teachers? Come out and support your friends and schoolmates!

Friday 10/2

6th & 7th grade Election day!

Vote for who you think would be the best person to be your voice and your representative! Make sure your voice isn't based on friendships or popularity, but who you really think is the best choice.

tuesday 10/6

Reflections Contest Kick-Off!

Show off your creativity and your genius by entering the Reflections Contest!

The categories are Literature, Visual Arts, Film, Photography, Dance Choreography, and Musical Composition! If you have talent, make sure you're using it!

friday 10/9

Student of the Month Assembly

Have you been a good student? Do you have enough Jaguar Paws to get your name picked out of the jar? Will the teacher call your name? This assembly tells all.

Monday 10/12

NO SCHOOL!

The only homework assignment you have to complete is sleeping in and making sure you have as much fun as possible.

wednesday 10/14

Volleyball game @ West High School

Who's really better? Students or the teachers? Come and see whether the students will beat the teachers, or get beat by the teachers. They still sell tickets there, and you can buy Halloween grams there as well!

friday 10/30

The School Day Before Halloween

Sure, it isn't really Halloween. But hey, who doesn't want to dress up in a crazy costume and possibly win the Costume Contest?! The Halloween grams will be delivered to each classroom during SSR, and a Halloween dance held after school! Who says you can't celebrate Halloween on October 30th?
